

Lorraine Pannett

Email: Margaret.Pannett@postgrad.manchester.ac.uk

PhD title: Making a Livable Life in Diaspora: How Women Refugees Make New Lives in Manchester.

Supervisor: Dr Encarnacion Gutierrez Rodriguez

Research specialisms: Social justice; migration and diaspora; refugees; gender; life stories; research practice.

Conference Presentations:

Found in Translation: Globalization and Life History. 'Mapping the New Knowledges' Conference at Brock University, Ontario, Canada. April 2006.

Affiliation to Research Centres:

Migration and Diaspora Cultural Studies Network.

Professional biography:

BA (Hons) Comparative Literature. University of Essex, 1970.

PGCE (English). University of Bristol, 1971.

Fellow of Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development, 1999.

MA in Social Justice and Equity Studies. Brock University, Ontario, Canada. August 2006.